

HARLEY BREEN

WINNER 2011 'Piece of Wood' Comic's Choice Award – Melbourne Comedy Festival
WINNER 2010 Spleen Comic of the Year
WINNER 2007 Tron Best Newcomer – Edinburgh Fringe

Harley Breen has blown away audiences from the Melbourne to Edinburgh to India. Regularly headlining around Australia, Harley has won over a legion of fans with his accessible and relatable comedy.

Consistently unpredictable, Breen's sets seamlessly move from sidesplitting material about the foibles of being a new-age dad to dodgy tales of his beloved old Kingswood; all without missing a beat. He projects the immediately recognisable and relatable image of the unpretentious Aussie male. Harley doesn't just use his instant likeability as a platform to deliver solid, topical material, he also gets beneath the nature of things to create a true bond with all his audience and deliver an experience that will be talked about long after the gig is over.

Harley performed his seventh solo show Some Kind of Something at the 2014 Melbourne International Comedy Festival to sell out crowds. He's more than just a popular act though; with praise also coming from his peers in the form of the peer awarded Comic's Choice Award in 2011. Harley is also one of a select handful of comics chosen to tour around Australia as part of the Melbourne Comedy Festival Roadshow.

Harley has a strong background in improvisation and acting, which includes being a resident on screen warm-up guy on ABC1's Adam Hills Tonight, an appearance on Peter Helliar's It's a Date, interviews on major FM stations, spots on the Comedy Channel and appearances on the well-loved TV show The Circle.
