

NATH VALVO

NOMINEE 2015 World Best Comedy – Perth Fringe

Whether it be his family, growing up in the 90's, his hatred of cats, Grindr or self serve supermarkets, Nath's razor sharp and hilarious stand up is winning crowds and critics over alike.

With sell-out shows annually in all major Comedy and Fringe Festivals, Nath is becoming a favourite of many comedy lovers around Australia. Some stand up highlights include performing to 3,000 people at Falls Festival in 2014, being selected to perform across Australia as part of the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Roadshow and receiving a number of 5 star reviews from major newspapers.

Nath makes regular appearances on TV. His credits include The Project, ABC's Dirty Laundry, ABC Breaky Show and ABC Comedy Up Late. In 2013, Nath was heard across the country hosting Nova FM's UpLate show and hosted the Saturday Morning Breakfast Show Melbourne during 2014.

Recently, News Limited has begun publishing Nath's articles. His unique, funny, and relatable content is proving a hit with one of the biggest online audiences in the country.

Next on the horizon from Nath is the opening of his hit show Grindr: A Love Store? in London at the prestigious Soho Theatre during November 2015.

'A riotous hour of sharp observations, family anecdotes and fabulous physical comedy. This performer appears to have been born on stage' ★★★★★ Herald Sun

'No clearer evidence of his talent, than keeping a full house roaring with laughter.' ★★★★★ Adelaide Advertiser

'Valvo paints vivid tableaux of his life with acutely observed characterisations and a style that's a pleasure to behold.' ★★★★★ The Age

'Valvo commands the stage. Ridiculously funny!' ★★★★★ Herald Sun

'Nath Valvo's comedic timing is a testament to his talents. He is not just a funny man, he is a great storyteller, with a knack for finding the funny in the most mundane, every day things.' Vulture Magazine