

SAMMY J & RANDY

NOMINEE 2016 Best Comedy – AACTA

WINNER 2010 Barry Award – Melbourne International Comedy Festival

WINNER 2008 The Age Critics' Award – Melbourne International Comedy Festival

In 2010 Sammy J and Randy won Australia's most coveted comedy award, The Barry, for their one-man/one-puppet show, Sammy J & Randy in Ricketts Lane. In 2011, they wowed audiences around the globe with Sammy J & Randy in Bin Night, then again in 2012, with the third show in their trilogy, The Inheritance.

They are without question two of the most sought after comics in Australia today. Combining catchy songs with chaotic tomfoolery and outbursts of filth, these two adorable characters have an uncanny knack of charming the pants off everyone they meet.

They have played to sold out houses at The Sydney Opera House, closed the Montreal Just For Laughs Comedy Gala and sold out seasons at Edinburgh Fringe. In 2012 the pair hosted the Melbourne International Comedy Festival's Opening Night TV Gala.

Sammy J & Randy starred in Network Ten's Good News World in 2013 and in 2014 Sammy J hosted ABC1's political satire, Wednesday Night Fever while Randy took football fans to the brink on SBS' The Full Brazilian.

This year the comedy duo were hand-picked to star in the Neil Patrick Harris Galas at Just For Laughs Montreal, scored an ARIA nomination for their latest DVD and have recently been nominated for the AACTA Award for Best Television Comedy series for Sammy J & Randy in Ricketts Lane, their debut television series on ABC1.
