

RANDY

Randy started doing stand-up comedy in 2005 and has since given birth to four critically acclaimed solo shows. He has appeared at most of the Fringe and Comedy festivals around the world as well as popping up at music festivals such as Falls, Woodford and Harvest.

When he's not busy updating his bio, Randy spends most evenings gigging in sticky-carpeted beer-barns from Edinburgh to Hong Kong, Galway to New York, Singapore to Sydney and anywhere in between.

In 2010 Randy joined forces with skinny man Sammy J to create Ricketts Lane, which won Best Show at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival and went on to become a television series of the same name, airing on ABC TV in Australia, Seeso in the US and Netflix in the UK.

Randy's role in Ricketts Lane earned him an ACTAA nomination for best performer in a comedy series in 2015. In 2016 Randy Writes a Novel was nominated for best comedy at The Edinburgh Fringe Festival and went on to do a season at the Soho Theatre in London as well as the 2017 Montreal Just For Laughs Festival, where Randy also appeared on the Jane Krakowski Television Gala.

Between semi-regular television appearances on shows such as The Yearly with Charlie Pickering, The Chaser's Media Circus, Spicks and Specks and Good News Week, Randy spends a lot of time writing and touring with his musical partner in crime, Sammy J. Together they have hosted the Melbourne International Comedy Festival Gala, appeared on Good News World, Q&A and The Project, written and toured live shows such as Bin Night, The Inheritance and Sammy J and Randy Land, performed a few times at The Sydney Opera House, released an album and a couple of DVDs, got nominated for a couple of ARIAs and featured on the Neil Patrick Harris Gala at the 2015 Montreal Just For Laughs Festival. His new live show Randy's Anti-Crisis will be touring in 2018.
