

NICOLETTE MINSTER

Nicolette Minster is a Melbourne based comedian and writer, best known for her work as a cast member and writer on KINNE Tonight (Network Ten) and Sammy J (ABC). She holds a BA Acting from Federation University and BA Actor Musicianship (1st Class Honours) from Rose Bruford College, London, where she was awarded the Lillian Bayliss Award (The Old Vic, London).

As one half of live sketch comedy duo Girls Uninterrupted, Nicolette created content for ABC2, following successful Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Adelaide Fringe seasons.

Nicolette co-wrote and produced the short film Palindromes which has screened at local and international festivals including Flickerfest, Cinequest, Palm Springs and CinefestOz. She was one of ten writers selected for Open Channel/Screen Australia's ScriptStart program with her debut feature film Occasional Hit to the Head, completed a writers attachment for 10Peach's Neighbours (Fremantle Media) and has contributed in narrative comedy development rooms for CJZ, Seven Studios, Sticky Pictures, Lingo Pictures, Fremantle and Mamamia!.

She produced the short film Paper Cut (2018 Tropfest Finalist) and was selected as a Screen Producers Australia "Ones to Watch" and mentored by former Film Victoria CEO Jenni Tosi.

Recent broadcast writing credits include Larry the Wonderpup (WTFN/Seven Network), The Legend of Burnout Barry (ABCme), The Wonder Gang (ABC Kids) and Erinsborough High (Channel 5 UK).

Nicolette co-wrote psychological thriller feature The Girl at the Window which stars Radha Mitchell and Vince Colosimo, directed by Mark Hartley and is due for Theatrical release in August 2022. Her original dark comedy series V was selected for Screen Australia/Vid Con's Pitcher Perfect event and is currently in development, supported by Screen Australia, with LateNite Films.

Nicolette will return to the live comedy stage in October with her highly anticipated show Net Worth, directed by Sammy J at Melbourne Fringe and can be seen in the upcoming ABC comedy Summer Love.

