

NICOLETTE MINSTER

Nicolette Minster is a Melbourne based comedian, actor and writer, best known for her work as a cast member and writer on KINNE Tonight (Network Ten) and Sammy J (ABC).

She is a contributing writer on Thank God You're Here, The Cheap Seats, Have You Been Paying Attention (Network 10) and Rhys & Joel's Family Christmas (Foxtel/BINGE). Her narrative credits include Larry the Wonderpup (WTFN/Seven Network), The Legend of Burnout Barry (ABCme), The Wonder Gang (ABC Kids) and Erinsborough High (Channel 5 UK), Nicolette also co-wrote psychological thriller feature The Girl at the Window starring Radha Mitchell and Vince Colosimo, which was released theatrically in 2022. She is currently in development as the sole screenwriter for the sequel, slated for production in 2024.

Nicolette made a triumphant return to the live comedy stage in 2023 with her highly anticipated show Net Worth, directed by Sammy J which she quickly followed up with comedy horror Boredroom, directed by Claire Hooper. Boredroom, which premiered at Melbourne Fringe 2023, will tour to Melbourne International Comedy Festival and Sydney Comedy Festival in early 2024.

She is a regular guest on ABC Radio Melbourne Evenings with David Astle, was selected as part of the 2024 Fresh Blood ABC Comedy initiative (supported by Screen Australia) and will appear in the upcoming season of The Newsreader (ABC) due for release in 2024.

When she's not making up stories for screen on her laptop, she's mining her real life as a toddler parent, keen observer and generally intolerant person for jokes that she shares at comedy gigs around Melbourne.
